Code of Conduct

I understand that I must:

- Be courteous to the coordinator, coaches, parents, spectators, guest speakers and other squad members.
- Ensure that the actions and activities of both yourself and others are in accordance with all rules and regulations.
- Have consideration for your horse. This includes not only feeding, watering and washing down but also the use of spurs, whip and reins.
- Wear approved and safe riding equipment, including an approved, securely fastened, helmet at all times while riding
- Ensure uniforms are worn at all squad activities and maintain a neat appearance
- Observe all rules and guidelines of training and competition venues and be mindful and considerate to fellow riders
- Must attend assessment day & all training days on nominated Program horse

I understand that, as a member of the 2022 Rising Stars Program, I am expected to attend at least 3 Rising Stars training days, I am expected to participate in equestrian activities outside my normal discipline and have read and understand my obligations to Equestrian WA and our Corporate Partners

The EA Code of Conduct for Parents & Guardians

In addition to the EA General Code of Behaviour, the following requirements must be met by Parents/Guardians during any activity held or sanctioned by EA, or as Parents /Guardians in any activity held by or under the auspices of the organization or one of its affiliates:

- Respect the rights, dignity and worth of others.
- Remember that your child participates in sport for their own enjoyment, not yours.
- Be Courteous to the Coaches.
- Focus on your child's efforts and performance rather than winning or losing.
- Never ridicule or yell at your child and other children for making a mistake or losing a competition.
- Show appreciation for good performance and skillful plays by all riders (including opposing riders).
- Demonstrate a high degree of individual responsibility especially when dealing with or in the vicinity of persons under 18 years of age, as your words and actions are an example.
- Respect officials' decisions and teach children to do likewise.
- Do not physically or verbally abuse or harass anyone associated with the sport (player, coach, umpire and so on).
- Respect the rights, dignity and worth of every young person regardless of their gender, ability, cultural background or religion.
- Be a positive role model.
- Do not use your involvement with EA, its members associations or affiliated clubs to promote your own beliefs, behavior's or practices where these are inconsistent with those of EA.
- Understand the repercussions if you breach, or are aware of any breaches of the EA Member Protection Policy.

EA General Code of Conduct

All EA Member or persons required to comply with the EA Member Protection Policy must meet the following requirements in regard to their conduct and behaviour during any activity held or sanctioned by EA, and in any role held within EA or any of its affiliates:

- Respect the rights, dignity and worth of others.
- Be fair, considerate and honest in all dealing with others.
- Be professional in, and accept responsibility for, your actions.
- Make a commitment to providing quality service.
- Be aware of, and maintain an uncompromising adherence to EA standards, rules, regulations and policies.
- Scrupulously avoid any conduct using privileged information to gain a personal or commercial advantage.
- Operate within the rules of the sport including national and international guidelines which govern Equestrian Sport, the member associations and the affiliated clubs.
- Do not use your involvement with EA, its member associations or affiliated clubs to promote your own beliefs, behaviours or practices where these are inconsistent with those of EA.
- Demonstrate a high degree of individual responsibility especially when dealing with persons under the age of 18 years, as your words and actions are an example.
- Avoid unaccompanied and unobserved activities with persons under the age of 18 years, wherever possible.
- Refrain from any form of harassment of others.
- Refrain from any behaviour that may bring EA, its member associations or affiliated clubs into disrepute.
- Provide a safe environment for the conduct of the activity.
- Show concern and caution towards others who may be sick or injured.
- Be a positive role model.
- Understand the repercussions if you breach, or are aware of any breaches of this Member Protection Policy.

EA Code of Conduct for Competitors

In addition to the EA General Code of Behaviour, participants must meet the following requirements during any activity held or sanctioned by EA or one of its affiliates:

- Abide by the principles of the FEI Code of Conduct for the Welfare of the Horse.
- Respect the rights, dignity and worth of fellow athletes, coaches, officials, volunteers and spectators.
- Do not tolerate acts of aggression.
- Respect the talent, potential and development of fellow athletes and competitors.
- Care for and respect the equipment provided to you as part of your program.
- Be frank and honest with your coach concerning illness and injury and your ability to train fully within the program requirements.
- At all times avoid intimate relationships with your coach.
- Conduct yourself in a professional manner relating to language, temper and punctuality, be courteous, kind and always set a good example in dress and behaviour.
- Maintain high personal behaviour standards at all times.
- Abide by the rules and respect the decision of the official, making all appeals through the formal process and respecting the final decision.
- Be honest in your attitude and preparation to training. Work equally hard for yourself and your team.
- Cooperate with coaches and staff in development of programs to adequately prepare you for competition at the highest level.
- Understand the repercussions if you breach, or are aware of any breaches of this Member Protection Policy.
