The EA Code of Conduct for Parents & Guardians

In addition to the EA General Code of Behaviour, the following requirements must be met by Parents/Guardians during any activity held or sanctioned by EA, or as Parents /Guardians in any activity held by or under the auspices of the organisation or one of its affiliates:

- Respect the rights, dignity and worth of others.
- Remember that your child participates in sport for their enjoyment, not yours.
- Be Courteous to the Coaches.
- Focus on your child's efforts and performance rather than winning or losing.
- Never ridicule or yell at your child and other children for making a mistake or losing a competition.
- Show appreciation for good performance and skilful plays by all riders (including opposing riders).
- Demonstrate a high degree of individual responsibility, especially when dealing with or in the vicinity of persons under 18 years of age, as your words and actions are an example.
- Respect official's decisions and teach children to do likewise.
- Do not physically or verbally abuse or harass anyone associated with the sport (player, coach, umpire and so on).
- Respect every young person's rights, dignity, and worth regardless of gender, ability, cultural background, or religion.
- Be a positive role model.
- Do not use your involvement with EA, its members' associations or affiliated clubs to promote your own beliefs, behaviours, or practices that are inconsistent with those of FA
- Understand the repercussions if you breach or are aware of any EA Member Protection Policy breaches.

EA General Code of Conduct

All EA Members or persons required to comply with the EA Member Protection Policy must meet the following requirements regarding their conduct and behaviour during any activity held or sanctioned by EA, and in any role held within EA or any of its affiliates:

- Respect the rights, dignity and worth of others.
- Be fair, considerate and honest in all dealing with others.
- Be professional in, and accept responsibility for, your actions.
- Commit to providing quality service.
- Be aware of, and maintain an uncompromising adhesion to EA standards, rules, regulations and policies.
- Scrupulously avoid any conduct using privileged information to gain a personal or commercial advantage.
- Operate within the sport's rules, including national and international guidelines that govern Equestrian Sport, the member associations, and the affiliated clubs.
- Do not use your involvement with EA, its member associations or affiliated clubs to promote your own beliefs, behaviours or practices where these are inconsistent with those of EA.
- Demonstrate a high degree of individual responsibility, especially when dealing with persons under 18 years, as your words and actions are an example.
- Avoid unaccompanied and unobserved activities with persons under 18 years, wherever possible.
- Refrain from any form of harassment of others.
- Refrain from any behaviour that may bring EA, member associations or affiliated clubs into disrepute.
- Provide a safe environment for the conduct of the activity.
- Show concern and caution towards others who may be sick or injured.
- Be a positive role model.
- Understand the repercussions if you breach or are aware of any breaches of this Member Protection Policy.

EA Code of Conduct for Competitors

In addition to the EA General Code of Behaviour, participants must meet the following requirements during any activity held or sanctioned by EA or one of its affiliates:

- Abide by the FEI Code of Conduct principles for the Horse's Welfare.
- Respect the rights, dignity and worth of fellow athletes, coaches, officials, volunteers and spectators.
- Do not tolerate acts of aggression.
- Respect the talent, potential and development of fellow athletes and competitors.
- Care for and respect the equipment provided to you as part of your program.
- Be frank with your coach concerning illness and injury and your ability to train fully within the program requirements.
- At all times, avoid intimate relationships with your coach.
- Conduct yourself professionally relating to language, temper and punctuality, be courteous, kind and always set a good example in dress and behaviour.
- Maintain high personal behaviour standards at all times.
- Abide by the rules and respect the official's decision, making all appeals through the formal process and respecting the final decision.
- Be honest in your attitude and preparation for training. Work equally hard for yourself and your team.
- Cooperate with coaches and staff to develop programs to prepare you for competition at the highest level adequately.
- Understand the repercussions if you breach or are aware of any breaches of this Member Protection Policy.
