

EWA High Performance Program

Aim - The EWA High Performance aims to identify talent and offer supporting education to Squad riders at a developmental level with ambitions to follow pathways to National Selection

Our Mission is to offer a High Performance program that:

- Identifies and develops athletes with the aspiration and potential to succeed in National and International competition
- Offers clear pathways for athletes to move between these groups
- Will significantly improve the success of aspiring HP athletes within WA.
- Maximises the effective use of limited funds available
- Support clear pathways promoting Coach and Officials Development from State through to National and International accreditation standards.

Values

- To create a high performance program that aligns disciplines and offers the highest possible opportunities for education and development of athletes on the high performance pathway
- Deliver and grow the Equestrian Western Australia High performance program with honesty, integrity, professionalism, discipline, passion and respect
