

Codes of Conduct as per Attachment A of the EA Member Protection Policy

The EA Code of Conduct for Parents & Guardians

In addition to the EA General Code of Behaviour, the following requirements must be met by Parents/guardians during any activity held or sanctioned by EA, or as Parents/guardians in any activity held by or under the auspices of the organisation or one of its affiliates:

- Respect the rights, dignity and worth of others.
- Remember that your child participates in sport for their own enjoyment, not yours.
- Focus on your child's efforts and performance rather than winning or losing.
- Never ridicule or yell at your child and other children for making a mistake or losing a competition.
- Show appreciation for good performance and skilful plays by all riders (including opposing riders).
- Demonstrate a high degree of individual responsibility especially when dealing with or in the vicinity of persons under 18 years of age, as your words and actions are an example.
- Respect officials' decisions and teach children to do likewise.
- Do not physically or verbally abuse or harass anyone associated with the sport (player, coach, umpire and so on).
- Respect the rights, dignity and worth of every young person regardless of their gender, ability, cultural background or religion.
- Be a positive role model.
- Understand the repercussions if you breach, or are aware of any breaches of the EA Member Protection Policy
