Name:	Dr Jenni Ahmat (BSCBVMS) (V2098)
Equestrian interest:	Professional interest in all horse sport disciplines. Parent of professional Showjumping rider. Owner of Showjumping horses. Breeder of Warmblood Sport Horses.
Previous Board / Committee experience:	Currently a committee member of WASJA. Intend to get involved in Governance of Sport at Board level in future. Qualified and fully registered vet and across AVA/EVA Board Matters.
Reason / objectives for interest in representing EWA on the Board of Directors or on a Committee:	Strong personal and professional interest in equestrian sport and equestrian industry development in WA, Especially in sport of Show Jumping.
Equestrian history:	Qualified vet with 35 years' experience in private practice. Formally licensed track work rider and owner with RWWA. Parent of 3 children who are riders and came through pony club, interschools and EA, now specialising in the sport of Show Jumping aiming for top of the sport, producing and breeding show jumpers.
Business experience:	Director of family company Topline Equine Services – which is a service provider to WA horse industry. Have developed animal health products and been a director with those companies. Going to complete 'Women in Leadership' governance course. Studying for MBA Online.
General comments:	I would like the opportunity to contribute more towards the growth of Show Jumping and the Equestrian sports in general. I believe we are facing challenging times both economically and in the area of defending equine welfare and I believe my diverse and comprehensive experience with horses from the grass roots to the coal face across the veterinary profession gives me valuable insights into all these issues.
